

Shadow Mountain Rehearsal Recording Studio welcomes;

Recording Artists, Bands, National Performing Acts, Touring Musicians, and Tour Managers!

Is the next leg of your tour coming to a major venue in the Denver metro area?

Whether you just need a break from all of the Planes, Limos, and Coaches, or you want to escape the hustle and bustle of the metro area, you still want to warm up for your slated performance,

~ or ~

You and/or your group have a few days before you need to be at the next show stop and you have time for a brief excursion, to find some seclusion, and breathe some fresh mountain air... Keep the creative juices flowing and produce a superb demo for your next hit single, or simply lay down a little something for that next album's worth of material you've been writing. With this large room and its' technology at your disposal, a social area, room to lounge plus a full kitchen and half bath, you may as well record your next album here.
